Media Release – 13 September 2016

Additional screening of "Hunt for the Wilderpeople" scheduled

Producer Carthew Neal specializes in providing "addictive entertainment". The much anticipated screen adventure "Hunt for the Wilderpeople" (2016) by Taika Waititi is a telling example of just that. The German premiere of the film which is presented by the Australian & New Zealand Film Festival Down Under Berlin has already been sold out even before the festival has begun. To meet the huge ticket demand Down Under Berlin has scheduled an additional screening at Movimiento Kino on 18 September 2016 at 10:30pm.

The screening follows the original session at 8:15pm on 18 September which will be introduced by His Excellency Rod Harris, New Zealand's Ambassador to Germany, and attended by producer Carthew Neal who will be available for a Q&A with the audience. Afterwards, festival guests are invited to join the official closing reception sponsored by the New Zealand Embassy in the festival lounge where the recipients of the audience awards 2016 will be announced.

About Carthew Neal

Carthew Neal produced Waititi's "Hunt for the Wilderpeople" and documentary "Tickled" - both premiered at Sundance 2016 to rave reviews. He is also associate producer of Disney's "Pete's Dragon". He is currently producing interactive documentary, "I Spy" and cartoon, "Aroha Bridge". Previously he produced two seasons and a US pilot of Madeleine Sami's award-winning comedy "Super City" directed by Taika Waititi & Oscar Kightley. He conceived and produced two seasons of "WA$TED" which sold to 20 countries and formatted into eight more. He has fourteen years production experience in the film, TV, live and digital creative industries and runs the Auckland-based production company Fumes.

Carthew Neal will be available for interviews on 18 September. Please get in touch with us regarding further information.

DOWN UNDER BERLIN 2016: "LIFE HAPPENS"

Down Under Berlin returns to Movimiento Kino from 14 – 18 September 2016. Over five days the festival presents Australian and New Zealand feature and shorts films as well as documentaries that capture the stories of love and friendship, loss and regret, coming-of-age and finding oneself and how the choices we make define our lives.
